

SIX KILLED, 15 HURT IN AIR RAID ON PARIS

French Flyers Wing 12 German Planes and 16 Balloons and Drop 46 Tons of Bombs.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—Six persons were killed and fifteen others were injured in Sunday night's air raid over Paris, according to the lists given by the newspapers to-day.

One of the injured was a woman, the mother of six children.

One Gotha machine was brought down in the Forest of Compiègne. The two aviators fled, pursued by gendarmes.

In aerial fighting Sunday, French aviators destroyed 12 German airplanes and set on fire 16 captive balloons, says the statement on aviation activities issued by the War Office to-day. Sunday night bombing squadrons dropped forty-six tons of bombs on military targets behind the German lines from Laon to Metz.

"CHICKEN PULLERS" BACK.

Poultry Transportation Men Call Off Streets Over Government Agent.

The "chicken pullers" are back on the job to-day after a brief strike that interfered with the transportation of poultry from the railroad yards in Hoboken to the stands of New York dealers. They objected to W. J. Boyle, the Government agent, who has been ousting thieving employees.

A committee from the strikers visited Cyrus C. Miller, head of the Bureau of Transportation and Distribution of the State Food Commission. He told them Mr. Boyle was a Government agent and couldn't be "taken out of the market," as they demanded. He advised them to take their grievances to the Federal Food Board, in the meantime returning to work, and they agreed and called off the strike.

WOMEN AS HOTEL WAITERS

Those in Blackstone, Chicago, Will Wear Hoover Insignia on Cap.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The Blackstone is the first hotel in Chicago to install women waiters. The new force of twenty-five, on duty in the Marble Room, wear costumes of white linen with caps of white trimmed with blue and the insignia of the United States Food Administration.

Women will also serve in the main restaurant for the duration of the war, and are being installed as rapidly as men waiters are called by the draft. "We are finding women waiters highly satisfactory," said Tracy C. Drake, President of the Blackstone.

LAWSON A CANDIDATE.

Enters Senate Race to Avenge "Wounded" McCall's "Enemies."

BOSTON, Sept. 18.—Thomas W. Lawson has entered the race for the United States Senate as an independent candidate. Papers were filed yesterday with the Election Commissioners by Charles N. March, a clerk in Lawson's office.

Others in the field are Senator Weeks, Republican, who seeks reelection, and former Gov. David I. Walsh, Democrat. In a recent speech Lawson declared Gov. McCall had been done to death by his political enemies, and announced that rather than "let them get away with it" he would himself be a candidate.

POLICEMAN SAVES INVALID.

Carries Unconscious Eighty-Six-Year-Old Man to Street.

ELIAS SHIRKIN, an invalid, eighty-five years old, was forgotten during a fire on the two top floors of the six-story house at No. 904 Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, at 5:30 A. M. to-day. When Policeman Thomas Kavanaugh finally found him, Shirkín was unconscious from smoke. The policeman carried him to the street, where he was revived.

Twenty-four families were driven to the street by the blaze, which started in Jacob Feinberg's kitchen and did $1,500 damage.
